序

這一部漢英辭典是爲適應現代大衆需要而編的，所以單字收入雖不太多，包括常見常用的字約八千字之數，但是收入短辭、成語卻不在少數。過於典雅的與過於粗鄙的詞語，以及過於專門性的術語，則均割愛。深信在資料的選擇上，這部辭典可以滿足一般讀者的要求。

單字排列沒有萬全的辦法，我們採取部首的編排是因爲這可能是最大多數讀者所熟習的。附有索引，或以筆畫部首爲準，或以國語注音符號爲準，或以威妥瑪式羅馬拼音爲準，以增加讀者檢字的便利。

單字與詞一概加注注音符號，這是我們特別致力的項目之一，讀者於檢求英文解釋之餘，可以因此得到正確的讀音。爲篇幅所限，只能以國語注音符號爲主。事實上國語注音符號是最簡便而又最準確的一套工具，欲求發音正確，讀者無分中外，皆宜通曉國語注音符號。

這樣一部辭典之最重要的一部分，當然是在英文解釋方面。我們使用的英文是現代流行的淺顯的英文。有些字詞，無妨一字對一字的直譯；有些只能以意義相當的字詞譯之；更有些不能不出於較冗長之解釋。我們的主旨是盡力使讀者在理解上得到便利。

我們編輯這部辭典，參考了我們所能獲得的不少的中外辭典，尤其是坊間早已出版的幾種類似的漢英辭典。在取材上、在翻譯上、在編排上，見仁見智，各有其獨特之處，我們不敢自詡後來居上，但是我們能從前此已有之成就汲取經驗，轉益多師，卻是不能不表示感激的。凡是字典均需隨時修訂，方能延長其壽命。我們誠懇的歡迎讀者指示其疏誤，以便陸續補正。

這部辭典的編輯，中文部分是由鍾露昇先生主其事，英文部分由朱良鐵先生、董昭輝先生、邵廓清先生分別擔任之。而全稿之綜閱、校覈、修改，則由朱良鐵先生獨任其艱巨。稿成之後，遠東圖書公司編輯部同人除悉心校對外，亦常提供意見，使這部辭典減少缺陷。這都是我們應該表示謝意的。

INTRODUCTION

Vocabulary Between the covers of this dictionary are collected 7,331 Chinese characters, under which are to be found some 80,000 entries. They were selected from a vast wealth of source materials, including dictionaries, old and modern literature, current newspapers, periodicals, legal documents and daily conversations. Inasmuch as this dictionary is intended as a useful tool for present-day readers seeking general but not encyclopedic information, the selection of the entries was made with the emphasis on wide application and current usage. Language being what it is, a lexicographer would be faulted for allowing his personal preference to influence his judgment in this respect. Among the entries of this dictionary one will find, side by side with what is "classic" or "highbrow", modern scientific terms familiar journalistic expressions, idioms and even slang which may appear slightly repulsive to those with a refined taste.

Form of Characters Many characters in the Chinese language are interchangeable. Some characters have a standard form and a popular form. In addition, there are simplified form and corrupt form. The problem is further compounded by the fact that many "standard forms" have sunk into oblivion, while what were originally considered "corrupt forms" have been accepted as legitimate through long usage. To solve this problem, the compilers of this dictionary choose for inclusion those forms that are regarded as "standard" by the majority of Chinese dictionaries in circulation. Popular forms and the most commonly seen corrupt forms are also listed, either separately or right beside the pertinent standard forms, and are included in the Radical Index for easy reference.

Arrangement of Entries In keeping with the Chinese tradition, individual characters in this dictionary are arranged according to their radicals. Each radical is shown in the Radical Table with a page number. The characters of the same radical are arranged according to the number of strokes in the ascending order.

Some Chinese characters have more than one pronunciation, with each representing a drastically different meaning. Characters of this category are listed separately. For example, the character "中" is pronounced ㄓㄨㄥ in "中間" (in the middle) and ㄓㄨㄥˋ in "中毒" (to be poisoned). Therefore, the same character "中" is treated as two separate characters. No such distinction is made with those characters whose meaning is not affected by difference in pronunciation. For example, the character "微" can be pronounced ㄨㄟ or ㄨㄟˊ without change in meaning. Characters of this nature are treated as a single entity with the different pronunciations indicated behind them.

Entries under each character are arranged according to the order of the Mandarin Phonetic Symbols (國語注音符號). For example, the expression "打草驚蛇" ㄉㄚˇ ㄘㄠˇ ㄐㄧㄥ ㄕㄜˊ is listed after "打鼓" ㄉㄚˇ ㄍㄨˇ.

All entries under each character begin with that particular character. For example, the entries under the character "文" all begin with "文". If one wants to find the expression "以文會友", he must look for it under the character "以".

Pronunciation Guide As the popularization of Mandarin education in Free China has made the Mandarin Phonetic Symbols a universal tool among the Chinese people below 40, the Symbols are adopted accordingly as a major pronunciation guide in this dictionary. Handiness aside, the Symbols are also the best and most reliable pronunciation guide available.

Two other kinds of pronunciation guide are used for the benefit of those who do not understand the Mandarin Phonetic Symbols. They are the Thomas Wade (威妥瑪) system of Romanization and the Kwoyeu Romatzyh (國語羅馬字). They are listed after the MPS transcription of each character.

English Definitions Woe to those who attempt to make a perfect translation between Chinese and English, two languages that have so little in common. The primary objective of this dictionary is to give the Chinese characters and phrases their English equivalents, on the assumption that the majority of them have English counterparts with identical or fairly close meaning. In cases where this is not true, the Chinese character or phrase in question is merely explained in English with no equivalent given. The late Mr. Yen Fu laid down three cardinal principle for the guidance of translators: fidelity, readability and literary elegance. The compilers of this dictionary have done their best to meet at least the first two of the three requirements, hoping that the deficiency in the last will be made up by the learned user himself.

The following rules are observed in giving the English definitions:

1. If one entry has two or more definitions totally different, they are listed separately and introduced by Arabic numerals in the ascending order with the more popular ones placed first. For example, the phrase "歲暮" has two definitions: (1) the late season of a year, and (2) the closing years of one's life.

2. To enable non-Chinese speaking readers to savor the beauty of some Chinese proverbs and expressions, this dictionary usually gives a literal translation first and then the inferred meaning after a dash.

3. Latin words and titles of books which appear in the English definitions are printed in italics.

Indices Four indices are attached to this dictionary. They are: (1) Radical Index, (2) Stroke Number Index, (3) Mandarin Phonetic Symbol Index, and (4) Wade Romanization Index. With these indices we hope no one will fail to find in this dictionary the character or any of the entries he is looking for.

Appendix In a table appended at the end, the Mandarin Phonetic Symbols are compared with the corresponding symbols of the various Romanization systems in currency.

體　例

一、字彙：本辭典收集常用單字七千三百餘字，短詞、成語達八萬餘條。取材範圍包括中英文辭典、新舊文藝作品、報章雜誌及日常談話。取材標準著重現代化與實用性，典雅的、俚俗的、以及常見的科學詞語，一併收羅，深信足供一般中外讀者參考之用。

二、字體：本辭典所列單字，以正體爲準。俗寫與訛體則加註於本字之後，或單獨列入並加註本字正體。

三、排列：

（甲）單字的排列是根據部首(見部首表)，同一部首之單字，則依筆畫多寡排列。每一單字均編列號碼，以便檢字，如單字「一」的號碼是「1」，單字「中」的號碼是「21」。

一個單字如有二種或二種以上的讀音，且意義因而變異的，則分開排列。如「中」字在「中間」ㄓㄨㄥ ㄐㄧㄢ 與「中毒」ㄓㄨㄥˋ ㄉㄨˊ 兩個詞語裏讀音不同，解釋也不同，故分列爲「中」ㄓㄨㄥ 與「中」ㄓㄨㄥˋ，但其編號則同爲一個號碼，即「中」ㄓㄨㄥ 與「中」ㄓㄨㄥˋ 均爲「21」號。

一個單字如果祇是讀音不同而不影響其意義時，則不分列，僅在變異的讀音後註明「又讀」字樣。

（乙）詞語的排列是按照國語注音符號的順序來決定先後。例如「打鼓」與「打草驚蛇」兩個詞語，是按「鼓」ㄍㄨˇ 與「草」ㄘㄠˇ 在注音符號表上的順序來決定排列的先後。

每一個單字下的詞語，一律以該單字開始。例如在「文」字下的每一個詞語的第一個字，一律是「文」。讀者如果要查「以文會友」這個成語，卻不要查「文」字，而要查「以」字。

四、注音：本辭典計採用三種注音符號：國語注音符號、威妥瑪式羅馬拼音、與國語羅馬字。每一個單字與每一個詞語的後面都加注國語注音符號，後兩者則僅列於單字之後以節省篇幅。

五、英解：本辭典之英文解釋，可分別爲兩大類：1.直接翻譯，2.解釋。前者適用於中英文可以直接對譯的情形（如：跑 — to run, 書 — book 等），後者則在無法對譯時使用（如旦角，a female role in Chinese operas）。本辭典英解方面之體例如下：

1. 一個詞語如有兩個或兩個以上絕然不同的解釋，它的英文解釋是分開排列而冠以阿拉伯數字。例如「歲暮」的英解是 ① the late season of a year, ② the closing years of one's life。
2. 許多中文成語、諺語的英解方式，是先直譯爲英文，然後在破折號後面再加引伸的意義。目的是使外國讀者對這些成語、諺語有較深確的體味。
3. 書名與拉丁文的專門名詞，一律用斜體字排印。

六、索引：本辭典共有四種索引：1. 部首索引，2. 筆畫索引，3. 國語注音符號索引，4. 威妥瑪式羅馬拼音索引。

七、附錄：國語注音符號與各式羅馬拼音對照表。
